Diary of a Minecraft Villager: Villager Days! (An Unofficial Minecraft Book) from The Mining Maniacs Kindle Edition Free download, List price $2.97 Publication Date: March 27, 2015 | Age Level: 7 â “ 18 12 year old Arak has the weight of the world on his shoulders and nothing goes right for him. Day after day his troubles multiply and still he keeps on trying. He get his just rewards in the end, but what are they? Read and find out!!! Not an age appropriate category, far to large ages 7 to 12 or 14 maybe, but that's it. Grab it while it's free, I don't think it's worth the price being asked, but it's not a bad read, just far too short to merit the price. 5 stars recommend grabbing it while it's free!!

I am posting this using my Dad's account. My parents got me this book as a download from BookBub. It was an ok book, but I did not like all the hate stuff. This is probably a good book for an 8 to 10 year-old.

So this is sort of what I figured the storyline was in Arak's crazy imagination... Jo gets eaten by zombies, his remains fall into a bottomless pit, and at the bottom of the bottomless pit, his remains get blown up by TNT and shot upward, where he lands in a lake, and Mr Mover also falls into that lake, and Jo's remains reattach and he is... HEROJO! (It's like herobrine) and he makes traps for creepers around the perimeter of the village to "help" and Arak leaves the village, then Zack throws a stick at herojo, who runs away crying, then Arak returns, borrows a hammer from Mr Anvil the blacksmith, and repeatedly whacks Joe in the face with it, and due to the whacking, herojo becomes normal Jo once more, and Arak whacks Joe with a shovel! Pow! Then creepers come and, umm... "take Joe away"... and when he respawned, he had a "big, stupid, red nose", also, he was a "big, fat, stinky liar"... Wait, he was already that... (Smirk) Then Mr Timmytots is trampled by pigs, Jo turns into a pig, but he is nasty, so no one wants to eat his bacon, and he drinks a potion to change twice more into normal Jo, and then... well... let's just say, Ron shows up... POW! WHAM! KAPOW! BAM! POWOWOW! (I guess this is a comic book now...)

These are nice books. Obviously there are some experienced folks behind the "fan fiction". Good illustrations; well-paced; funny. No inappropriate content. In a very quick read I didn't encounter a single spelling/grammar/format error (in the genre of Minecraft fan fic... that's a miracle). Although KUL is flooded with poorly-written, royalty-focused Minecraft books, this is a decent pick for your kid. Not literature by any stretch of the imagination, but it's READING at least! PARENTS - please check the book description, author profile, and "LOOK INSIDE" for obvious grammar/spelling mistakes... if you see them, don't buy. Self-published works will always have a few flaws (it doesn't make financial sense to proofread - how do you think they offer them for 99 cents a pop?) - but we should insist on proper, literate, works such as this one.

I like this book a lot there should be a second part of this book where he gets older and graduates school and leaves the village and builds a mansion and becomes the richest guy in the world

I love villagers and since I've read so many diary of a wimpy kid books this is exception. Love every thing about it. Thanks for making this book possible mining maniacs.

I thought it was boring at first but at the end I got hooked and the kid was a hero leading to a five star rating and me wanting to make a diary book!

This is a good book about a villager kid! I love that the villager is a kid not an adult that makes it better than a man at his work.
