Customer Reviews

This book does exactly what it advertises. A nice selection of patterns that are useful for edgings or insertions. Clear directions and beautiful pictures of the finished product makes patterns that are easy to follow.

One of the worst tatting books I have ordered. Most of the patterns are taken from OLD books and have been published in most other tatting books. Some people have even dared to copywrite them; at least this book didn't do that. Seriously, this book is NOT worth a penny or your time!

I find the book easy to follow and I have made some of the items in the book. Do need experience in tatting.

Patterns are mostly so simple as to hardly qualify as a pattern. Suitable for beginners, otherwise there's not much in here of interest.

good diagrams, but fairly simple patterns,
