I'm not a big chocolate fan. I know, some people think I'm odd. I do, however, love caramel. This cookbook grabbed my attention immediately. The book is full of creative and delicious recipes for the caramel lover. Every recipe is laid out easily to check ingredients and to follow the directions. The recipes are not too complicated but not so simple that they're boring. The first thing I'm going to try is the caramel bread pudding. The tips section is especially helpful for those who aren't used to working with caramel or making candy. This is a must have for the holidays and for all year.

Don't read this book on an empty stomach! This is not your grandma's caramel - this book makes it an art form. And not just candy - sauces, cookies, popcorn, and frosting. Not to mention desserts to use them in. Along with down to earth explanations of the different types of creams and chocolate that goes into making all that gooey goodness. Make any one of these recipes and you have a great inexpensive hostess or Christmas gift.

As a great fan of home-cooked things that most people don't make (like relish and mustard), I find this cookbook to be awesome! Luscious candy, cookies, sauces and more - made of butter, cream, brown sugar, real vanilla beans - how can you beat that!!! There's no comparison to store-bought caramels - you have to taste them to believe it!!! Great book!!!

J.R. Goode provides simple, clear instructions for many favorite caramel desserts. Variations on old favorites (sugar-free and vegan caramel sauce) are great. Caramel apples and caramel corn are my favs!

Before I begin - I've got to admit a big bias - I LOVE CARAMEL! LOOOVE IT! So it was great to find a book based purely on God's favorite desert topping (I'm assuming that's true). Luckily the book held up to my expectations; easy instructions to follow and even easier to make, with some delicious recipes. Personal favorites were - apple cider caramels and the coconut macadamia nut caramels - delicious.

What a nice variety of recipes with easy to follow directions! Can't wait to try them all! I really like the added information about the different types of creams, chocolate, etc. I found this information very helpful. This book includes recipes that I have never run across and am very excited to try. Kudos to J.R. Goode for another great book!!

Exactly the book I have been looking for! Who does not love Caramel. This book will get you through every Holiday of year, and then some! Cookie/Candy making day for Christmas is tomorrow. Can't wait to try something new with Caramel!!!

I love this book! Easy to follow directions with pictures. I have a husband that just loves caramels and loves making them for others at the holidays. If you don't have this book you should definitely get it!
